Introduction

The family Ichneumonidae is the largest family of Hymenoptera with 48 generally recognized subfamilies, 1,579 genera and 24,281 described species (Yu et al. 2012; Çoruh et al. 2014). These beneficial insects are parasitoids of Lepidoptera, Coleoptera, Diptera and, to a less extent, spiders and the egg sacs of spiders and pseudoscorpions (Wahl & Sharkey 1993; Finch 2005; Çoruh & Kolarov 2010). Some of these parasitoids have been used successfully as biological control agents (Gupta 1991).

The fauna of Iranian Ichneumonidae is not well studied: Kolarov & Ghahari (2005) listed 144 species from 14 subfamilies; seven years later Barahoei et al. (2012) listed 502 species belonging to 189 genera and 24 subfamilies. Later, many authors (Ghahari 2014; Ghahari & Jussila 2014a, b, 2015; Ghahari et al. 2014a, b; Barahoei et al. 2014a, b, 2015; Ghahari & Gadallah 2015, etc.) have made contributions to the knowledge of the Iranian fauna.

The aim of the present research is the report of new records of Ichneumonidae for the fauna of Iran, a total of 11 species belonging to the subfamilies Ichneumoninae (4 genera, Diphyus Kriechbaumer, 1890, Ichneumon Linnaeus, 1758, Rictichneumon Heinrich, 1961, and Vulgichneumon Heinrich, 1962) and Tryphoninae (4 genera, Cosmoconus Förster, 1869, Ctenochira Förster, 1869, Monoblastus Hartig, 1837, and Tryphon Fallén, 1813) (Hymenoptera, Ichneumonidae).

Material and methods

The Ichneumonidae recorded in this paper were collected by the use of Malaise traps and sweeping nets in some regions of Iran. The collected materials were put in alcohol 75% or mounted on triangular labels and were examined with a stereoscopic binocular microscope.

The subfamilies, genera and species are listed in alphabetic order according to the recent Interactive Catalogue of World Ichneumonidae (Yu et al. 2012). The distributional records were also based on Yu et al. (2012).
